

Contact:
Russ Lipari
Georgia Free Clinic Network
404.580.1214
rlipari@gfcn.org

Media Advisory**

Georgians Providing Free Healthcare to Uninsured GFCN conducts Third Annual Conference

- What: Georgia Free Clinic Network, in partnership with Morehouse School of Medicine and the Georgia Public Policy Foundation, conducts its third annual conference. The two-day event will draw together medical, public policy and business leaders committed to ensuring all Georgians have access to quality healthcare. A series of workshops will be conducted to raise awareness around Georgia's network of 30 free clinics and to better educate attendees on how they can contribute to creating a healthy Georgia. For more on the conference go to <http://www.gfcn.org/conf2006.html>.
- Where: Morehouse School of Medicine
National Center for Primary Care
720 Westview Dr. SW
Atlanta, GA 30310
- When: Thursday and Friday, September 7-8, 2006
- Who: Dr. Rhonda Medows, Commissioner, Georgia Department of Community Health
Russ Lipari, Executive Director, Georgia Free Clinic Network
Abel Ortiz, Healthcare Policy Advisor, Office of the Governor
Kelly McCutchen, Executive VP, Georgia Public Policy Foundation
Dr. George Rust, Director, National Center for Primary Care, Morehouse
Dr. Karen Minyard, Director, Georgia Health Policy Center, Georgia State
- RSVP: Email conference@gfcn.org or call 206.913.8018

Georgia Free Clinic Network establishes a link between individuals, businesses and organizations that are assisting the growing population of individuals unable to afford healthcare. GFCN provides a central organization for sharing resources and knowledge to advance the movement of free medical services in the state of Georgia. To learn more visit our website at www.gfcn.org.

Sponsors of GFCN include: Kaiser Permanente, Pfizer, McKesson, WellCare, Home Diagnostics, Logisticare, MAG Insurance, United HealthCare, Avanti HealthCare, Cigna, DataNet Solutions, Georgia Association of Health Plans, Quest Pharmaceuticals, Medical Association of Georgia, National Association of Free Clinics, Georgia Pharmacy Association, Georgia Partnership for Caring, Center for Health Transformation, and Georgia Association of Health Plans.